About the Brand

Isy B. is an award-winning storytelling design studio from the Cayman Islands. We create limited-edition clothing and accessories featuring artist Isy B.'s hand-drawn artwork based on original Island folk tales.

Full of magic, whimsy, and wonder, each of the folktales invites you to connect with the beauty, and wisdom of the islands.

The result is bold, unique, and beautifully vibrant accessories and clothing collections through which your guests can connect with the Island's tradition of storytelling and art.

Why Folktales?

Folktales and storytelling have been used as a means of keeping the wisdom, mythology and values of communities alive. They continue to be an integral part of Cayman Islands history and culture.

Stories are meant to be shared, so we ensure that each piece in the collection carries the audio narration of its story, inviting our audience to listen, be inspired, and become a part of our island community.

Meet the Designer

Isy Obi, founder of Isy B., is a Caymanian designer, artist, and storyteller. Proud of her multi-cultural heritage, Isy's work reflects her experiences of the intersection of Caribbean, African and Western culture.

Design, creativity, and working with intuition are a part of the designer's DNA. She uses the medium of intuitive storytelling as the inspiration for creating hand-drawn prints for her designs.

Meet the Designer and Storyteller Activations

Hosted personally by designer and storyteller Isy B., your guests can enjoy time with the designer, a local Caymanian to learn more about the Islands and the culture - the inspiration behind her art and her stories. This can also involve a live storytelling session.

Choose a story to inspire your guests

Engage them with Island wisdom and a sprinkle of Island Magic.

The Storyteller collections are based on whimsical Island folktales written and narrated by designer Isy B. and well-known local storytellers, Nasaria Suckoo-Cholette and Virginia Suckoo.

Made up of limited-edition collectors' items, from lifestyle accessories to vibrantly elegant clothing, the storyteller collections are designed to inspire and bring the joy of island life to the everyday wherever you live.

The designer's unique combination of visual design and audio narrations will elevate your corporate gifting in way that is guaranteed to inspire, engage, and enchant your guests.
