When it comes to looking red-carpet ready, you don't need to be a leading starlet to steal the show. Ashley Fodor reveals the styling secrets of Hollywood's top hair and makeup artists

Hairstylist	Client	QUICK FIX	UNIVERSAL APPEAL	MORNING MUST	PRE-PARTY PICKUP	PRIVATE ICON
 BYRON WILLIAMS Byron & Tracey Salon Los Angeles	 EVA MENDES	 RENÉ FURTERER NATURIA DRY SHAMPOO "boosts body without adding oil. Use it to make your hair fresh again."	 Williams has his clients prep with KIEHL'S CREME WITH SILK GROOM before a big event. Results: superior conditioning and easier styling.	 Skip the blow-dryer; apply MOROCCANOIL HYDRATING STYLING CREAM "to damp hair and let it dry naturally" for silky waves, guaranteed.	 Big and bold award-show styles require 12-hour hold. Williams suggests his high-stamina BYRON SPIRULINA HAIR SPRAY.	 "BRIGITTE BARDOT, because her hair always captured the essence of glamour. She was so sexy in her time and still is today."
