

The Level[®] - ReWood

Balance Board For Standing Desks

Outfit your office and keep your team moving with the Level balance board, now available with our recycled wood top deck. Studies show that sedentary behavior has a negative impact on health, but adding subtle, natural motion to your day can help offset that. The only boards backed by science, our omni-directional decks contribute to a healthier workday, keeping employees happier, more productive, and more comfortable.

Materials:

- The base is die-cast, military-grade aluminum (recycling any scrap metal back into the supply chain).
- Powder-coat finish using a near-zero-emission method.
- The Level's beautiful skeleton base features a half-inch 100% recycled wood (ReWood) top deck finished with an almost zero-emissions powder-coated texture.

Specifications:

- 26" long x 12" wide x 2.5" tall
