

You are currently reading Austin Kidbits.

Search

- HOME
- PLAY
- SNACK
- SHOP
- LEARN
- PAMPER
- ETC
- SHARE
- TREATS (DEALS)
- EVENTS
- SIGN UP!

< Previous 205 / 205 articles

send to friend

print

Tweet

Eastside Story

See more in Shop »

SHOP

November 16, 2011

After you (barely) survived your last plane trip with the littles, you accepted the fact that a family vacay somewhere exotic is about as realistic as your chances of a date-night table at Uchiko without a reservation.

Cozy up at home with worldly textiles from Mela & Roam. Texas mom Courtney Barton handpicked the collection of exclusive linens and blankets while scouring souks, bazaars and markets in Southeast Asia for one-of-a-kind items. Barton's passion for handmade textiles and art was developed while working under designer Jill Stuart and couturier Ralph Rucci. She finds the best from the East and brings it home to the West, instantly transporting you to far-flung places.

So while you may not be jetting off to India with the baby anytime soon, you can certainly wrap her in a vintage blanket sewn from cotton saris.

Because that's just how you roll.

www.melaandroam

INSIDE SCOOP FOR MOMS ON THE GO

SUBSCRIBE NOW IT'S FREE

enter your e-mail address

WHAT IS KIDBITS? DO TELL... CLICK HERE

THEY THINK YOU ARE THE BEST MOM

(read up & let's keep it that way)

CLICK HERE TO VIEW KIDBIT LIBRARY

Recent Kidbits

Eastside Story