

Golden Globe Trotting

A darling of Lonny, Vogue and Garden & Gun, Mela & Roam grows into a permanent location.

When no one RSVPed for your Sunday mimosa party for the Globes, you realized you were the only person in your group not committing to a sober January.

Spice things up at your soiree for one by turning a vintage camel tassel into champagne bottle adornment, courtesy of the brand new brick and mortar location of Mela & Roam. Housed in the adorable second floor loft of Jardin de France, the petite space is loaded with owner Courtney Barton's global finds: super soft dohars, kaftans, pillows, throws and linens from her far flung travels to spots like India and Bengal.

You'll be the winner for best pitcher.

Mela & Roam (2nd floor of Jardin de France)

Open Tues-Sat, 10am-5pm, 4819 Blossom St, Houston, TX 77007
