

TWO-FACED

Even though we're partial to lipstick, it doesn't mean gloss is dead to us. JACOB Lip Duos ($10 each, jacob.ca) feature both in one tube, in the event that we feel like a swipe.

FASHION LOVES

SMITH FARMS Vitamin-Rich Hand Cream ($18, smithfarmsproducts.com), because the sisters behind this homegrown green skin-care line not only harvest ingredients such as lavender from their family farm in Quebec, but also source locally made eco-friendly packaging.

SMOKING POTS

CIATÉ caused a small riot over its 3-D caviar manicure, inspired by an editorial shoot in which creative director Charlotte Knight adhered loads of tiny pearls to nail tips. But the British label's basic Paint Pots ($14 each, ebeauty.ca) are also pretty impressive, with a solid spread of toxin-free shades.

DOUBLE VISION

Wielded by makeup artist Tom Pecheux at Derek Lam's Fall 2012 show, ESTÉE LAUDER Sumptuous Two Tone Eye-Opening Mascara ($32, at department stores) features both a regular-sized and a tiny brush that each dispense a different shade. Making the top lashes darker than the lower ones is an eye-widening trick that Pecheux has had up his sleeve for years.

PRINTED INVITATION

Tucked inside a Pucci-fied pouch in a design called Winter Capri, GUERLAIN by Emilio Pucci Terra Azzurra Bronzing Powder & Blush ($76, at department stores) delivers an Italian Riviera-inspired sun-kissed glow.

EXTRA CREDIT

The latest concealers have bulked up their cvs with some extracurricular activities. PERRICONE MD No Concealer Concealer ($45, at Sephora) packs SPF 35 and hyaluronic acid to plump fine lines, while CLINIQUE Even Better Concealer ($23, at drug stores) is infused with skin-brightening vitamin C.

SHIP in a BOTTLE

A beachy spinoff to her first fragrance, DIANE VON FURSTENBERG's Sunny Diane ($65, at department stores) blends mandarin and frangipani. It's also laced with sea-breeze accords, which we imagine is a nod to the designer's sailing trips on her supersize yacht.
