BISCUIT RECIPE

Today we're giving the recipe for cutest biscuits you've ever seen! Make your very own egg shaped biscuits this Easter and decorate them however you want to!

INGREDIENTS:

300g Plain Flour
150g Caster Sugar
150g Salted Butter
1 Large Egg
1 tsb Vanilla Extract
500g Royal Icing Sugar

GET BAKING

A decorative banner with a string of colorful flowers (yellow, pink, purple) and green leaves, arching across the top of the page.

1. Add the sugar and flour to a bowl, mix in the butter and rub together with your fingertips until the mixture is like wet sand with no lumps of butter. Use your hands to knead the dough together – try not to overwork the dough, or the biscuits will be tough. Shape into a disc, then wrap in cling film and chill for at least 15 mins. Heat the oven to 180C/160C fan/gas 4. Line two baking sheets with baking parchment.

2. Dust a work surface with flour. Halve the dough, then roll one half out to the thickness of a £1 coin. Use an egg-shaped cookie cutter to stamp out as many cookies as you can, then transfer them to one of the baking sheets, leaving a little space between the biscuits. Repeat with the other half of the dough.

3. Bake for 12-15 mins, until the biscuits are pale gold. Cool on the tray for 10 mins, then transfer to a wire rack to cool fully. Once cool, decorate to your liking (see next steps). Keep in an airtight container for up to five days.

FINAL STEPS

4. To decorate the biscuits with icing, add enough water to the icing sugar to make a thick icing – it should hold its shape without spreading when piped. Transfer about a third of the icing to a piping bag fitted with a very small round nozzle. Pipe an outline around the biscuits, then draw patterns in the middle – lines, spots and zigzags, anything your heart desires.

5. Leave to dry for 10 mins. Divide the remaining icing between as many colours as you'd like to use, then use the gels to dye them. Loosen the icing with a few drops of water, then transfer them to piping bags. Use the coloured icing to fill the empty spaces on the biscuits. You may need to use a cocktail stick to get it into the corners. Once covered, leave to dry for a few hours.

The Story of Mr Wiggles

When Mr Wiggles was a young bunny, he dreamed of being bestowed the highest honour a rabbit can be given - the title of the Easter Bunny. This was no small role, as even the smallest mistake could throw Easter into chaos! Mr Wiggles' chance finally came one morning when he was voted by the carrot committee to be the Easter Bunny. Within the hour, he was given hundreds of chocolate eggs to keep safe until it was time to hide them for the Easter Egg hunt.

Mr Wiggles was so worried that someone would steal the eggs that he made his own special burrow in the middle of a field where no one would even think to look. Feeling very pleased with himself, Mr Wiggles left the burrow convinced all of the eggs would be safe until the annual egg hunt in two days time.

Mr Wiggles slept all the way through to the morning before the egg hunt, he woke up feeling fresh and ready to hide all of the eggs. Mr Wiggles walked for miles and miles and couldn't seem to find the burrow that held all of the eggs. He retraced his steps and began to panic. He didn't recognise the area he was in at all. His worst fear was coming true - had he ruined Easter after all? Would he forever be remembered as the rabbit who ruined Easter?

He pushed these thoughts aside and held the hope that he would find the eggs. Mr Wiggles searched high and low, far and wide, until he came across a small little mushroom with a paw print next to it.

As he followed the prints all the way up the hill he came to an opening, he ran quickly into the burrow, where he was met with the beautiful multi-colour foils of the eggs shining under the stream of sun from the entry way. The colours danced across all of the walls in the burrow, like he had entered a kaleidoscope. Mr Wiggles stared at the walls in amazement, he truly thought that he had lost these eggs forever. He quickly put all of the eggs into his basket and made his way back to Hopville to hide all of the eggs for the little bunnies to find.

The next morning Mr Wiggles sat in the town square and watched all of the little bunnies laughing, showing each other all of the eggs they had found. Mr Wiggles smiled proudly, he had done his job as the Easter Bunny. Mr Wiggles learned a valuable lesson that day, everything lost can be found again.
