

A is for Angels

Taken from Luke 2:8-14

An angel woke up the shepherds.
Open your eyes wide.

The angel had good news: Baby Jesus was born!
Lift your arms and say: Hooray!

Then more angels were up in the sky.
Hold up all your fingers above your head.

They sang a beautiful song.
Can you sing a song for baby Jesus?

A is for angels,
with songs sweet and mild,
who told all the shepherds
to go find the Child.

B is for Bethlehem

Taken from Luke 2:1-7

Everyone was sleeping in Bethlehem.

Rest your head on your hands.

Mary and Joseph had no place to stay.

Shade your eyes as if you are looking for something.

They slept in a stable, where animals sleep.

Pretend to pet an animal.

Then Jesus was born!

Fold your arms to rock the baby.

B is for Bethlehem—
no room to stay.
So when Jesus was born
He slept sound in soft hay.

C is for Cow

Taken from 1 Samuel 6:7

Two cows had a big job.

Spread your arms wide.

They had to pull God's special box.

Pretend to pull something.

They went where God told them to go.

Point straight ahead.

C is for cows,
so big and so strong.
They did work for God;
to Him they belong.
