We appreciate your cooperation with these guidelines for all Center4SpecialNeeds-sponsored or hosted services, including: parent gatherings, educational workshops, support meetings, and the Parent Mentor Program.

1. Respect:

- Please be respectful of one another's choices, interventions, and opinions. We expect that you will conduct yourself in a respectful manner with each other.
- The program is not a place for judgment or criticisms of another. We do not prescribe or diagnose; rather, we support direction from resources on our website and/or own personal experiences.
- We encourage the right to participate at your own comfort level.

2. Confidentiality:

- All information shared at or during one of the aforementioned services will remain confidential between mentor and mentee.

3. Consideration:

- Please show consideration when someone is speaking and do not interrupt, engage in side conversations, or conduct phone conversations during a meeting.

4. Punctuality:

- We encourage timely arrivals, in order to respect each other's time.

5. Please Note:

- Our family support services are safe and inclusive environments. The Parent Mentor Program is only for parents, grandparents, and/or guardians who have children with special needs. This program is not for outside organizations, professionals, or providers to attend. If you are not a special needs parent/grandparent/guardian, you will not be accepted into the program.
- We will not tolerate any inappropriate or unacceptable behavior (which will be cause for immediate dismissal and banning).
- Center4SpecialNeeds shall not be held liable for anything that may occur to or among members at any of the events or meetings.
