LINE SHEET

Our mission is to create safer lives and communities

Unfortunate statistics reveal the need for this mission. In the U.S. alone, every 35 seconds, someone is the victim of a violent assault. It is tragic that so many innocent lives are harmed, or even lost.

We are making a difference. MUNIO Self Defense was founded on the firm conviction that we can, and we should, actively fight back against a criminal attack. Our product, MUNIO, can empower people to do so... easily and effectively.

A safe and stylish solution

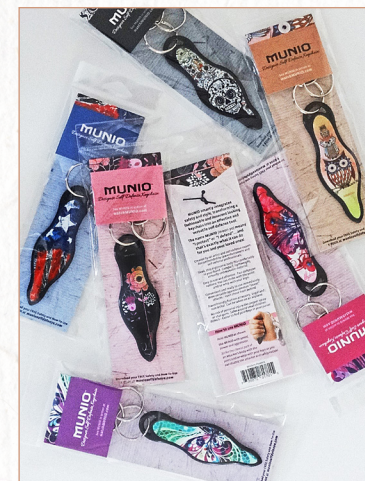

MUNIO smartly integrates safety and style, transforming a fashionable and innocent looking keychain into an effective and versatile self defense tool. MUNIO's stylish appeal makes people more willing to carry it with them regularly and help them to be safer. Our brand name MUNIO (moon-yo) comes from a Latin word meaning "I protect" or "I defend"... and that's exactly what it can do for you and your loved ones!
