Brenniston National Standard Workplace First Aid Kit Selector

Selecting the right Brenniston National Standard Workplace First Aid Kit for your business is quick and easy. Just click on the first aid kit that's right for you and you'll be taken to our website to order. It assures your Australian workplace health and safety compliance.

Your workplace first aid kit contents should be based on a risk assessment of the nature of the work, the hazards, size, location, nature of your workplace, and the number and composition of the workers, contractors and volunteers. To be fully compliant, you may need more than one workplace first aid kit.
