Emser Tile Donates to the American Red Cross for Hurricane Florence Relief

Funds dedicated to affected North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia citizens

LOS ANGELES – In the aftermath of Hurricane Florence, Emser Tile has made a $10,000 donation to the American Red Cross to support local humanitarian services and programs in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

The Los Angeles-based tile and stone company operates several showrooms and service centers, as well as a 400,000-square-foot distribution center, across the three states. Emser Tile employs more than 100 local area associates and services thousands of valued customers and partners in the region.

“We are inspired by the strength and resiliency of those affected by the devastation of Hurricane Florence,” shared Carl Delia, president of Emser Tile. “We support these communities, including our partners who have been impacted, as they move in the direction of a safe recovery.”

About Emser Tile LLC - Emser Tile is the largest privately held designer and marketer of tile and natural stone products in the United States. Our principal offering includes an extensive line of ceramic, porcelain, natural stone and decorative products to service the design and product needs of our customers. Our products are distributed nationally through a company-owned network of local sales and service locations. The company's products are used extensively in new home construction, remodel applications as well as commercial projects including multi-family housing, hospitality, shopping centers, office buildings and educational facilities.
