

Everything You Need to Know About Shopping for an Inflatable Fishing Boat

Our article, Everything You Need to Know About Shopping for an Inflatable Fishing Boat, will give you all the details and things to look for to make sure you get the perfect inflatable fishing boat for YOU!

Did you know that around 16.5% of the United States population goes fishing at least once per year?

Fishing is a great hobby that allows you to get outdoors, spend time with friends, and catch a healthy meal.

Whether you have been fishing for a while or you are brand new to fishing, you have probably at least thought about owning a fishing boat. Fishing boats give you the convenience of getting out on the water anytime you want and allow you to efficiently explore various fishing spots.

If you enjoy smaller fishing lakes where a large fishing boat doesn't make sense, is too difficult to get on the water, or if you aren't ready to invest in a regular fishing boat yet, an inflatable fishing boat could be the perfect solution. Keep reading and we will tell you all about inflatable fishing boats.

Why Choose an Inflatable Fishing Boat?

If you want to buy a fishing boat, why should you choose an inflatable fishing boat? There are several benefits to buying an inflatable fishing boat over a hard-shell fishing boat.

Here are a few of the benefits:

Affordable

If you are on a budget, choosing to get an inflatable fishing boat is the best option for you.

A regular fishing boat can cost anywhere from \$10,000-\$100,000, depending on the type of boat you choose.

An inflatable boat costs anywhere from $500-$3000, depending on the type of boat and features that you want.

Overall, inflatable boats allow you to get on the water at a much lower cost.

Convenient

Not only are inflatable fishing boats more affordable, but they are also more convenient.

Regular fishing boats have to be towed on a trailer, making them difficult to transport and requiring you to plan ahead.

Inflatable fishing boats deflate and are easy to transport. You can even fit them in the trunk of a small car. Air pumps make inflating and deflating fishing boats an easy task. This means you can get in on the water anytime you want.

Safe

Did you know that inflatable fishing boats are safer than regular fishing boats?

It is almost impossible to flip an inflatable boat over in rough weather conditions. This is because the boat sits on top of the water and has a good center of gravity.

Since you won't be traveling at as high a rate of speed, you will have more control and the rare accident will be less damaging.

If you get a hole in your inflatable fishing boat while on the water, don't panic because puncture holes are easy to repair.

4

Accessibility

Since you can easily carry an inflatable fishing boat with you, you can reach some areas that you may not be able to reach with a regular sized fishing boat.

If some of your favorite fishing holes are off the beaten path, then an inflatable fishing boat will be perfect for you.

If you are hiking or camping near a lake and want to do some fishing, then an inflatable boat is really going to work out great!

5

Learning

When just learning how to fish or boat, an inflatable fishing boat will really help you get a hang for the sport.

They are also great for youngsters just falling in love with fishing and looking to expand their horizons.

Just make sure to wear a floatation device.

Inflatable Fishing Boat Features to Consider

When buying a boat, it is important to compare the different features so that you get what you are looking for.

Each person will have different fishing boat necessities.

Here are some of the features that you should consider when looking for an inflatable fishing boat:

1 ✓

Capacity Ratings

How many people do you plan to take on your fishing boat? Each boat will come with a passenger rating that will tell you how many people the boat can hold.

Your inflatable fishing boat will also come with a maximum weight capacity. Make sure that the boat you choose can hold the desired amount of people and weight.

2 ✓

Material

What is the difference between an inflatable fishing boat and an inflatable water toy?

The difference is the type of material used. Inflatable fishing boats are made using durable material that can hold up to the toughest conditions.

The best fishing boats are made out of PVC, Polyurethane, or Hypalon. PVC is the most common material used to make inflatable fishing boats.

3 ✓

Power

Do you want to paddle your inflatable fishing boat or do you want one with a motor? If you choose to get an inflatable fishing boat with a motor it will require a larger investment.

When fishing on larger lakes or when you really want to be efficient it will be worth it; especially if it makes your fishing trips more enjoyable.

But, if you want to get some exercise while fishing, choosing a boat with paddles is a good idea. Even if you have a motor you will want to have paddles on board in case of issues with the motor.

4

Storage

When you go fishing, you need storage for your fishing rods, cooler, and fish bait. When choosing your inflatable fishing boat, keep storage space in mind.

While some boats will have plenty of storage, others may not have as much.

You will also want to make sure that you have some dry storage, which may require a separate waterproof bag.

5

Seating

Fishing is a relaxing activity, so be sure to choose a comfortable seat for your inflatable boat.

The best fishing boat seats are a combination of comfortable and practical.

When fishing, you want a seat that allows you to maneuver quickly to catch your fish.

Common Types of Inflatable Fishing Boats

Now that you know what type of features to look for in an inflatable fishing boat, what are the most popular types of inflatable fishing boats?

Here are some of the most common inflatable fishing boats on the market:

1 ✓

Inflatable Fishing Pontoon

Like regular pontoon boats, inflatable fishing pontoons sit on two inflatable air bladders.

These fishing boats allow you to easily sneak up on fish and you can also stand up on them if there are sturdy cross planks. They are best for one or two people, depending on the type of craft.

While most inflatable fishing pontoons come with paddles, you also can get one with a motor. These fishing boats tend to have more storage space than some other types of boats.

2 ✓

Inflatable Fishing Kayak

Another common type of fishing boat is an inflatable fishing kayak. These are similar to a fishing boat with a slightly different design. They are comfortable, easy to maneuver, and can be taken anywhere.

Most of the time, they don't come with a motor, so you have to paddle. They also don't have a lot of storage space. Another option is to look into is the incredible Bixpy Kayak Motor which can really make your day more enjoyable. The motor can also be used on inflatable fishing boats for a lower horsepower option.

3 ✓

Inflatable Frameless Fishing Boat

These inflatable fishing boats are lightweight and easier to store than inflatable fishing boats with a frame. Frameless fishing boats give you space for people, supplies, and a motor if you would like one.

Inflatable frameless fishing boats are the perfect combination of lightweight, spacious, and durable.

When considering all of the options, Sea Eagle Inflatable Fishing Boats really stand out above the rest. They have been in the inflatables business for over 50 years and they really know their stuff.
