What is a Banana Boat Tube?

To put it simply, a banana boat tube is a large non-motorized, inflatable boat tube that you can attach to a boat or waverunner to be pulled behind. It is usually bright yellow and shaped like a banana, hence the name 'banana boat tube'!

It is the perfect addition to any day out on the lake or ocean. Banana boat tubes are durable, strong, and resistant to any rough water or small debris.

Our Island Hopper Banana Boat Tubes are made from 1100 denier, 9.0 mm PVC material which is stable and resistant to damage so you are ensured a safe and smooth ride for all your people on board.

The material is also resistant to damage from the sun's UV rays which means that it doesn't wear out or fade easily. It also means your banana boat tube keeps its striking yellow color out on the water for much longer.

Banana boat tubes vary in size from 3 person models all the way up to a 14 person 'Banana Bus' Banana Boat. Banana boat rides are available with inline seating and side by side seating options.

Whatever model or seating style you choose, it is always a comfortable and safe ride for your passengers. With plenty to grip on to everybody will feel secure in the seating arrangement. Banana boat tubes provide a smooth and balanced ride over the water.

So why delay on getting your own banana boat tube? Soon you'll be having the ride of your life! Whether with all your friends and family or with guests you will be cruising, laughing, and having a great time on the open waters.

Summer Camps and Kids Clubs

A banana boat tube is a great addition to any summer camp or kids club you might be running.

Because it is inflatable and so durable and strong, it is easy to store over the winter months when you aren't using it, without worrying about wear and tear.

Kids love the fun element of a banana boat tube, it's a fantastic outdoor activity for them if they want to get out on the lake or ocean but perhaps aren't keen on activities like kayaking or windsurfing.

They are still able to participate with their friends in a fun group activity but aren't having to control a piece of equipment by themselves. They can also sit back and enjoy the ride while laughing with friends instead of having to paddle a kayak or canoe.

This can be a real highlight and addition to a summer camp which will ensure that all your kids, of differing range of ages, can have a great time at your camp.
