

How to Make Your Flower Girl Feel Like a Princess Checklist

Dear Bride,

By making your Flower Girl feel like a princess throughout your wedding, she'll add her own unique sparkle to the day as she enchants guests and helps create an extraordinary day that she, too, will cherish and remember always.

We created this How To Make Your Flower Girl Feel Like A Princess checklist so you may make yours and your flower girls fairy tale come true.

The sections "Involve Her", "Attend to Her" and "Prepare Her" are all about you're your Flower Girl's emotions and feelings listing ways to help her feel like a princess.

The section "The To-Dos" is a checklist on the things we suggest need to be done so your Flower Girl helps to make your wedding day special. There is also room to add your own special items to the list.

Involve Her

- Visit a flower shop and show her all the different types of flowers
- Show her bridal magazines, invitation samples or let her go through your wedding binder.
- Bring her to the bakery that is making your cake and have a little treat for two
- Take her dress shopping to try on some fancy dresses
- Invite her to your bridal events and get-togethers
- Have her nails done and let her choose the colour.

Prepare Her

- Explain her Flower Girl roll and what is expected of her during the ceremony
- Introduce her at gatherings to get her used to crowds and all eyes on her.
- Acknowledge the importance of her flower girl role and how proud you are of her.
- Tell her she is like Cinderella who is always so gracious
- At the rehearsal, ensure she understand what to do.
- Name the people she will know at the wedding and is familiar with
- Go through the timeline of events so she will know how the day will unfold
- Introduce her to your wedding party ahead of time

Attend to Her

- Arrange for a bridesmaid to take her under their wing.
- Make sure she has had plenty to eat and drink and that she has had a bathroom break just before the ceremony
- Have someone in the wings encouraging her or to help her out If needed
- If she is a little timid, remind her about her flower girl role
- Appoint someone to look after her following the ceremony.
- At the reception dance with her. She will love to twirl in her princess dress and sparkle for everyone.

The To-Dos

- Purchase her dress leaving enough time for alterations
- Purchase accessories such as hair clips, leggings and jewelry
- Purchase shoes
- Purchase her tiara and or flower crown
- Select her flowers and flower basket
- Buy her a memorable gift that she will always cherish
- Arrange to have her hair done
- Arrange transportation
- Add a picture of just the two of you to the photographers list
- Ask one of your Bridesmaids to look after her before and during the ceremony
- Arrange for someone to help out during the ceremony in case things don't go as planned
- Arrange for someone to take care of her during dinner and the reception
- Plan for someone to take her home If she gets tired

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

We hope this list helps in a little way to make your Flower Girl feel like a princess. In turn she will add sparkle to your wedding day and create a memorable bond with you that can last a lifetime.

Shine On!

Love Fiola XOXO

PS. Don't forget to sign up to our email list if you haven't already for more content and handy checklists! Please follow us :)

www.fiolajewelry.com

hello@fiolajewelry.com

