BAR SETUP

The bar area may just be the most important area at a function, to some.

Add a touch of flair and luxury when you set up your bar area in an entirely different section of its own, this will encourage your guest to walk freely through the party which would probably lead to a conversation along the way.

A party where booze and conversations flow freely are a host's and guests perfect scenario. Investing in a bar setup that provides ample storage is an entertainer's best option. If you are an avid entertainer, consider a unit that is multifunctional and aesthetically pleasing too. Place a room divider in this set up to help separate the bar from the lounge or to add a dramatic backdrop to highlight your bar design.

ALETHEA ROOM DIVIDER

Outdoor room dividers — can be used in the form of a hedge, a screen, a freestanding wall or simply as functional art. Use a room divider to define areas of your garden. In addition to serving the practical purpose of separating selected areas or spaces, your outdoor room divider can also add an element of mystery and drama to your outdoor setup.

Use the Alethea Room Divider to selectively block views so that your guests may be enticed to walk through your outdoor space to see what can be discovered.
