

fig. 1

ATELIER COLOGNE
Earthy wood notes layered with subtle floral and spice make the brand's Emerald Agar Cologne Absolué soft and wearable; $250, at Neiman Marcus, Beverly Hills

fig. 2

JO MALONE
The new Basil & Neroli fragrance has title notes, along with vetiver and cedar, for something fresh and clean; $130, at Nordstrom, The Grove

fig. 3

EX NIHILO
The Parisian perfume house's Amber Sky Eau de Parfum has notes of nutmeg, vanilla and amber; $525, at The Scent Bar, L.A.

fig. 4

KRIGLER
Kabarett Krigler 216 — an ode to 1920s Berlin — melds fruity florals and clove, coffee and saffron into a warm, spicy mélange; $355, at The Four Seasons Hotel Los Angeles, Beverly Hills

fig. 5

PHUONG DANG
Carrot seed, whiskey, carnation and leather? In the perfumer's Leather Up, it all adds up to a confident albeit unique spritz; $300, at Barneys New York, Beverly Hills

GENDER NEUTRAL NOSES

It's so 2016! Equality replaces the usual she-he as fall embraces fragrances for every identity By Meg Hemphill