

CERULEAN ARTS COLLECTIVE

In 2006, Cerulean Arts began with the mission to cultivate an appreciation for art by presenting exhibitions, offering unique decorative and fine art for sale and providing art instruction for personal fulfillment. Nearly 300 artists have exhibited their work during Cerulean Arts' first decade.

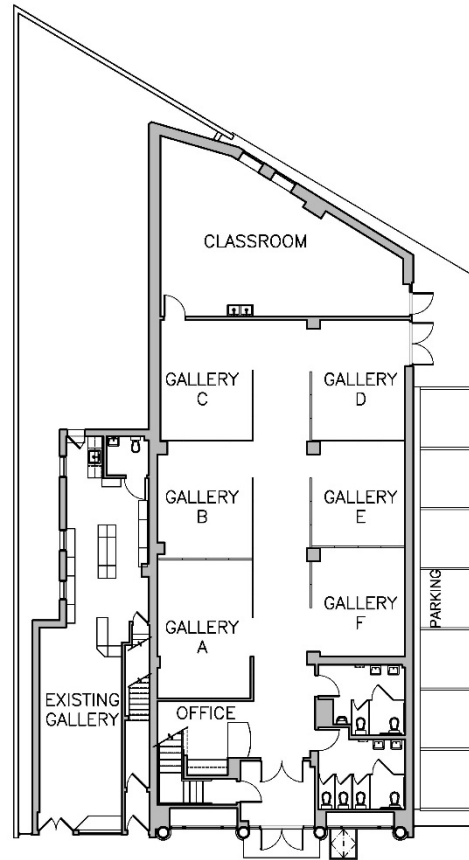

We are excited to announce our new venture the Cerulean Arts Collective, with an expanded venue comprising six additional galleries beginning Fall 2017.

Collective Artists' Benefits:

- Solo exhibition every 12-18 months
- Cerulean Arts manages exhibition installation, sales and all staffing (No gallery sitting required)
- At least one work on display at all times in the Collective Gallery A or storefront windows
- A minimum of six works stored on site for visitor inquiries
- Artists' page on Cerulean Arts website with works available for sale online
- Reduced commission of only 30% on sales of artwork
- Gallery promotion including exhibition postcards and email announcements
- 10% discount on all gallery purchases and classes
- Located ½ block from the newly renovated Divine Lorraine, Cerulean Arts is easily accessible by public transportation and soon will have its own parking lot

Collective Artists' Responsibility:

- Monthly dues of $75 with a minimum of 1-year commitment

For consideration, please email your statement, resume and website link or five digital images (jpg, tiff or pdf) to info@ceruleanarts.com with "Cerulean Arts Collective" as the subject line. Review for the 2017/2018 season will begin on Monday, April 3 and continue on a rolling basis as vacancies are available.
