Set your feet upon the Rock
Trust him with your every fear
Call to Jesus, can it be
He was once a child like me?
A hiding place for all who knock
Set your feet upon the Rock

Throw your life upon his grace
He who bore your every sin
Little ones, our God forgives
Died and rose
That we might live
With a tiny, tender faith
Throw your life upon his grace

Do not fear your final breath
Jesus never leaves his own
Let eternal life begin
See his children rise with him
He destroyed the power of death
Do not fear your final breath

A hiding place for all who knock
Set your feet upon the Rock
