Well the Bible's not a smorgasbord
A table full of food
To have a little pick and choose
Depending on your mood
It's not right to have a nibble on
The bits that you don't mind
But if there are bits that you don't like
You leave those bits behind
Ooooooo...

CHORUS

*Because the whole Bible
The holy Bible
The wholeee holy Bible
Is the Word of God
Because the whole Bible
The holy Bible
The wholeee holy Bible
Is the Word of God*

Well the Bible's not a supermarket
God's big grocery store
To fill your little trolley
When you push it through the door
It's wrong to only pick the bits
That simply suit yourself
And leave some bits of God's Word
Back there sitting on the shelf
Ooooooo. ...

CHORUS

Well the Bible's not the internet
With buttons you can press
You know clicking on the bits you like
And flicking all the rest
It's not full of different channels
You can browse to when you're bored
You can switch off your gadget
But you can't switch off the Lord
Noooooo. . .

CHORUS

BRIDGE

*Front to back
Bottom to top
Every word is a
Word from God
Holy Spirit's inspiration
Genesis to Revelation
No mistakes
It's all true
You can't pick and
You can't choose*

Every verse and
Every chapter
Every page
God's comin' at ya
Ooooooo. . .

CHORUS. . .

*Every teeny weeny
Itsy bitsy
Eeny meeny
All of itsey
Every little bitsy
Is the Word of God*
