THE MORSØ 1010

THE MORSØ 1010

The newest addition to the famous Squirrel family.
A wood burning cast iron stove which exceeds even the strictest current UK standards.

Available as standard with Squirrel sides and 100mm legs, the 1010 is a robust radiant stove which offers a large firebox viewing window.

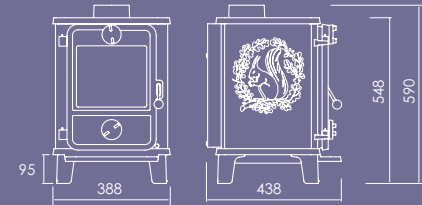

In addition the reversible flue collar extends the options on fitting.

The 1010 will provide you with many years of reliable comfort and warmth in these uncertain times.

- Ecodesign 2022 Compliant
- En13240 approved
- Smoke Exempt for installation in DEFRA controlled areas
