

Many Faces of Singapore

Come and discover what Singapore is really about – warm, enriching and unforgettable multi-heritage cultures!

Singapore has been described as a thriving cosmopolitan city that's brimming with diversity, as well as a multiplicity of culture, language, arts and architecture. Just like other destinations, the city has her own unique set of offerings that sets her apart. Come and discover what Singapore is really about – warm, enriching and unforgettable.

Chinatown - Aerial View of Street Market

Thian Hock Kheng Temple - Front façade

Visit Fascinating Chinatown, a bustling, colourful mix of old and new, from family-run goldsmiths and medicine halls, to textile stores and dim sum restaurants. Popular bakeries like Tong Heng Oriental Pastry on South Bridge Road, tea houses like Kwong Chen on Sago Street, hawker stalls, as well as stylish bars along Club Street, are also housed in this precinct, making Chinatown a well-balanced heartland.

Continue to colourful Little India, Singapore's foremost Indian enclave. Its charm lies in the fact that many of olden-day trades can still be found by its roadsides, alleys and backlanes. Fortune-tellers and their parrots, flower vendors selling garlands of jasmine, kacang puteh (roasted nuts) sellers on pushcarts and street-side newspaper vendor are just some of the interesting sights to be found.

View of a couple holding a garland on a trishaw in front of a flower shop

Continue to Kampong Glam with It is full of traditional stores selling carpets, household wares and textiles. Its major landmark, the Sultan Mosque, sits in the heart of this enclave and is open to all visitors, as is the nearby Malay Heritage Centre, where you'll learn about Malay history and culture. The alleyways of this cultural precinct are filled with the smells, sights and sounds of spices, tourists, school kids, rattan furniture shops and oil-based perfumes. Take a walk down to Bussorah Mall to experience the rich delights and charms of the many cafes, eateries and street stalls here.

View of 2 rows of shophouses with Sultan Mosque in the centre

Note:

- Tour Duration includes travelling time to and from the attractions
- Depending on the traffic conditions, durations of tour may vary
- Tour operates with minimum 02 pax
- No refund for cancellation less than 48 working hours before tour starts