Subscriber is the person using the System and receiving the Services. Subscriber (sometimes referred to as "you" or "your") has agreed to purchase or lease a personal emergency reporting device (the "System") from the Company (sometimes referred to as "our", "us" or "we") and subscribe to services which will be provided by a third-party subcontractor call center (the "Center"). OPTIONAL MONITORING SERVICES. Monitoring service consists solely of monitoring service personnel alerting the persons, entities or agencies identified by Subscriber in writing to Company ("Responders") upon the monitoring facility's receipt of data or other communication from the System reporting conditions that require assistance (a "Response Condition"). During the term of this Agreement, the Center will provide seven (7) days per week, twenty-four (24) hours per day monitoring of the Device (the "Monitoring Service") in accordance with the provisions set forth herein. The Device is connected to the Center's monitoring network. When an emergency signal from the Device is received by the Center, the Center shall, without warranty, make every reasonable effort to promptly contact you and, if the Center determines that it is necessary in its reasonable judgment, notify the appropriate emergency authorities (fire department, police, ambulance service, etc.) (collectively, the "Responders" and each a "Responder"). You represent that the emergency contact information provided by you to the Company is accurate. To avoid false alarms, the Center may first call your contact telephone number to determine if an actual emergency exists before contacting any Responder. If the Center has reason to believe that no actual emergency exists, the Center may choose not to place such call or notify any Responder. You hereby agree that the Center may rely absolutely on the statements of Subscriber, the Responders or any person acting on behalf of Subscriber or the Responder, with regards to responses to the location and condition of Subscriber. We may discontinue any particular form of response if required to do so by any governmental authority or insurance interest. Subscriber acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Installation and Use Requirements with the delivery of the Device. Company may re-publish the Installation and Use Requirements from time-to-time and Subscriber shall be bound thereby upon Company's delivery thereof to Subscriber. Weekly testing of the System is required to insure System is functioning correctly. A finance charge of two percent (2%) per month shall apply to all obligations not paid pursuant to these terms.

AGREEMENT TERM & TERMINATION. Subscriber may terminate this Service Agreement by returning purchased/leased device to Company within the first fourteen (14) days following delivery of the initial order for a full refund of equipment cost and pre-paid monitoring fees, less original shipping charges and any/all non-refundable activation fees. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Company may, in its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement, with or without cause and without any liability whatsoever, upon thirty (30) days notice to Subscriber. In the event such termination is without cause, Company shall, upon written request, refund any unearned charges.

You hereby acknowledge that all communications between you, the Company and/or Center may be recorded. You consent to such recording.

FORCED ENTRY. You agree and acknowledge that if any alarm signal is received by the Center and a Responder is sent to the location of the Device, in the event that the Responder would need a key, code or other means of accessing such location that is unavailable to such Responder, the Responder may be required to forcibly enter or break into such location if the Responder determines that it is necessary in their sole discretion. You understand that this may result in damage or physical injury to you or a third-party or to property owned by you or a third-party. You hereby waive any claim against us or any responder which may arise as a result of such break-in or forced entry, and you hereby agree to hold harmless, indemnify and defend us, the Center, the responder and any of our or their authorized representatives for any losses incurred by us or them in connection with such forced entry. You acknowledge that this provision could require you to pay significant amounts in the event that the Company, the Center, the responder and/or any of our or their authorized representatives is required to pay, or agrees to pay, any third-party for damage to such person or such person's property.

WARRANTY SERVICE. If the device becomes defective due to a defect in materials, workmanship or design, Company shall repair or replace the device at company's election during the first ninety (90) days. THE COMPANY IS NOT AN INSURER. You understand and agree that neither we nor the Center are an insurer of your premises, property or your personal safety and that you are solely responsible for providing any life, health or disability insurance and insurance on you and your premises and its contents. You understand and agree that the amount you pay to us is based solely on the value of the Monitoring Service we provide and not on the value of you or your premises or its contents, it is difficult to determine in advance the value of any personal injury or death or the property that might be lost, stolen or destroyed if the Device or our service fails to operate properly and it is difficult to determine in advance what portion, if any, of any property loss, personal injury or death would be proximately caused by our or the Center's failure to perform, our or the Center's negligence, or a failure of the Device or our or the Center's service. You further understand that the amounts being charged by us are not sufficient to guarantee that no loss will occur and that we are not assuming responsibility for any losses which may occur even if due to our negligent performance or failure to perform any obligation under this Agreement.
