All work should be dropped off/picked up in the Kavanagh Gallery

This is your chance to show your work. If you took a class or workshop at Fine Line in 2018 you can be part of the first Kavanagh Gallery Exhibition of 2019. There is no entry fee for this exhibition. You can put your work for sale, or if you are not ready to part with, just list NFS in the price box and put a value in the Insurance box. Remember Fine Line will take 30% commission on any items sold, so price your work accordingly. All 2-D pieces must be ready to hang. Because of the hanging system we use, you must use a wire hanger (not a metal or saw tooth hanger). Complete the information on this form, cut the last column with the submission numbers and attach a submission number label to each piece to be displayed, making sure the numbers correspond. These labels are removed prior to display. If you are unsure of the name of the class you took, books will be available when you drop your work so you can complete that line. Bring this form with you on when you drop your work off, it must accompany your pieces. There is no limit to the number of pieces each person may put in, but the gallery committee reserves the right to limit the number of pieces put on display once all the work has been received. If you are submitting more than 5 pieces, please use the blank add on sheets found online or in the studios. You will need to manually enter the number of each piece. Please write clearly or use block capitals.
