

2017 Bowl4Life Scholarship Recipients:

Not only did we give the ONE scholarship we promised, but thanks to our amazing sponsors and supporters, Davey Rosen and Ken Roper, we were able to give TWO additional scholarships. So a total of $3,000 was awarded to three deserving young athletes.

Kaan Kurt

Coach's Comment: "I love his competitive drive, class of sportsmanship and professional demeanor. He is competitive, sharp and disciplined. He knows how to win but also how to lose – he manages defeat and learns from the experience – He is a true leader and will be an excellent role model for Bowl4Life and bowling in general. He is hardworking with an unbelievable passion for our sport. He is also a great young man and very deserving of this honor."

From his application: "Bowling is my life and has made me the person who I am today. Bowling is not just a sport, it is a way of life."

Welcome to the Bowl4Life family Kaan Kurt!

Meghan Macunovich

On her way to Robert Morris University in the fall.

Comments from her High School Coach: "She is best described as a bowling fanatic. This young lady is a great student and works diligently on her game. She loves this sport and is a true leader of her team. She is always working to improve and is willing to do what it takes to do so."

Comments from her new College Coach "I was impressed with how my A Team immediately gravitated to her during try-outs. She immediately got along with everyone. The team loved her demeanor and her personality. She was radiant and full of smiles. I am excited to have her on our team."

From her application: "Bowling is my main passion in life. I do not know where or who I would be without it. There is nothing more satisfying to me than helping new bowlers improve their skills."

Welcome to the Bowl4Life family Meghan!

Jacob Boris

on his way to Indiana Tech University in the fall

Comments from High School Coach: "He is not only a model Student, he is a model human being. He is quiet, reserved and self-sufficient. He is a true example of everything right with young people. He has a positive outlook at all times. He conducts and presents himself in a professional manner. He will be an outstanding face for the Bowl4Life Foundation."

Comments from upcoming College Coach: "I am excited about what this young man will bring to our program. He not only has a phenomenal physical game, but I anticipate his leadership skills and tremendous mental awareness to be unbelievable assets to our entire team. He is calm, level headed and has a willingness to learn. He is extremely intelligent and has been awarded the highest academic award available from our University. He is very worthy of this honor and will represent the Bowl4Life Foundation as a true professional."

From his application: "Hard work, determination, and not being afraid to fail are words I live by. Life is about taking chances and pushing yourself to the next level. I keep myself "physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight". I am a man with a plan, and I do not give up on goals."

Welcome to the Bowl4Life family Jacob!
