

August 2023

Congratulations to the August Bowl4Life Athlete of the Month, Emma Eder, 14 year old rising 9th grader at Lake Braddock Secondary School.

Over the past few years, Emma has grown in leaps and bounds, working tirelessly every day and constantly improving. She demonstrates a hard work ethic, positive attitude, sportsmanship, leadership abilities, and volunteer efforts in the community.

Emma is currently in five bowling leagues, including a youth league and a sport shot league at her home center, Bowl America Woodbridge. She is the top averaging bowler in her age group at the center and recently won second place at Maryland Pepsi and third place at the National Capital Area United States Bowling Congress (NCAUSBC) Tournament of Champions.

Academically, Emma is a straight-A student who is active in the National Junior Honor Society, serves as a Youth Ambassador at her school, and has won Student of the Month, Student of the Quarter for honors social studies, and Student of the Year for honors science and home economics. Emma won the Lake Braddock Secondary School President's Community Service Award for performing over 40 hours of community service this past year. Emma was also selected to be the Youth Representative on the National Capital Area USBC Youth Committee.

Emma loves birds, especially her Sunsky conures, Kiwi and Mango. She also loves creating artwork and had three pieces featured in the Lake Braddock Secondary School Art Show. Congratulations Emma! Welcome to the Bowl4Life family. Keep up your hard work on and off the lanes!

June 2023

The Bowl4Life Foundation is proud to announce the 2023 June Bowl4Life Eileens Bowling Buddy Athlete of the Month!

William Reemsnyder
Conway, SC

One of William's best qualities is how he is always striving to help others. He has so much fun bowling and has made a lot of friends along the way. William is a superstar when it comes to his kindness and support of his team. He always takes a major role in fundraising in bowling and his community. William is a part of the Grand Strand Youth Leaders.

Keep up the great effort William! Welcome to the Bowl4Life family!

May 2023

Congratulations to Angelia Lubrano, the May 2023 Bowl4Life Eileen's Bowling Buddys Athlete of the Month!

Age 18 from Brooklyn, NY

Angelia strives to be a good student, community volunteer and dedicated bowler. She picked up the sport of bowling only 6 years ago, after her best friend/aunt passed away from lung cancer. Her aunt was a very good bowler when she was younger and often talked to Angelia about how much she loved the sport. Angelia and her family planned a bowl-a-thon fundraiser at Rabs in memory of her aunt, and that is when she caught the bowling "bug". Her love of bowling grew with each practice. She discovered a love of bowling and practicing the game to become a skilled competitor. She joined several leagues and started to participate in as many tournaments as she was able. She placed seventh in the New York State Pepsi Tournament Girls U18 Division in April, Placed second in the NYS Youth Tournament with the "BAJA Bowlers" and Previously placed second in her age division at the NYS Individual Championships in Syracuse.

She also found success in the classroom, being named one of SFC's McGuire Scholars as well as the Dean's List her first year of college. She was so looking forward to her college bowling career, unfortunately, she was so disappointed to be told that her college has decided to end all sports programs. She wants to continue to bowl in college, she is hoping to find a new home on another D1 college roster next season.

I've watched in admiration as she spearheads several community actions each year – the latest was curating a wish list for patients in the Maimonides Pediatric Cancer Unit and their families, collecting the items, and then delivering them. She joined Bravo Volunteer Ambulance's Youth Squad and has become a certified dispatcher. She consistently put in the work to maintain high academic grades and to compete as an athlete in the sport she loves.

Keep up the great work Angelia. Welcome to the Bowl4Life family. We can't wait to see what you accomplish next!

March 2023

Congratulations to Emily Carpenter, the March 2023 Bowl4Life Eileen's Bowling Buddys Athlete of the Month!

Age 15

from McHenry, IL

Coach Steve Brugioni at Raymond's Bowl

Emily is a Sophomore in high school but bowling caught her eye when she was 10, just to meet some other kids her age in a fun league. Our youth coach made it so much fun for the kids, she asked to go almost every day. In the next few months, she was up to two youth leagues per week and the fun league. The following year she was asked to join the travel league and her love for bowling shined through. She worked hard, started lessons outside of the coaching from the league and found a great match with Coach Steve Brugioni. Besides her high school team, she has expanded her tournament experiences to Illinois Pepsi Finals, ISST, JBST, AYBT, GLJGT, and PBA Jr. This July will be her 3rd trip to Junior Gold.

Keep up the great work Emily. Welcome to the Bowl4Life family. We can't wait to see what you accomplish next!

February 2023

Congratulations to Max Eder, the February 2023 Bowl4Life Eileen's Bowling Buddys Athlete of the Month!

Age: 18

from: Springfield, VA

Coach William Clark and Coach Bryant Mehio

Bowl America Woodbridge

Max is a senior who will be graduating from Lake Braddock Secondary School in Burke, Virginia in the spring with a 3.8 GPA, and who will be attending Muskingum University in New Concord, Ohio, in the fall to bowl with the Fighting Muskies.

He is an incredible person, who has improved as a bowler dramatically and has come an incredibly long way! Bowling is a true passion for Max. He started bowling three years ago in a fun local youth league, got some good advice and met some caring people who saw his potential, and moved to a more competitive elite league where he has excelled ever since. He bowls in several leagues and works tirelessly with his coaches, William Clark and Bryant Mehio, practicing every chance he gets to get better.

Max received five offers to bowl on college teams! The interest is not just because he is a good bowler. He also has an amazing attitude, works incredibly hard, is a supportive teammate, and is driven to succeed.

Max has success on and off the lanes. Max is going to study education in college and hopes to work with elementary school students. He would be perfect in this career, as he is a pillar in our community, as a teacher should be. Max is a member of the National Honor Society and volunteers regularly to help out elderly neighbors with just about anything they need strong hands for. He does yard work for neighbors, participates in park cleanups, collects recyclables to help the environment, coordinates a food drive for those in the community, and helps with special needs members in the bowling community.

Keep up the hard work Max! Welcome to the Bowl4Life family!

January 2023

Congratulations to Becca Claypool, the January 2023 Bowl4Life Eileen's Bowling Buddys Athlete of the Month!

Becca is a senior at Beaverton Jr/Sr High School. She has been participating in bowling since she was in kindergarten with a Saturday Youth League. Becca has been an asset to her high school bowling team, in which, she has been captain for the last two years. Also, for the last two years, she has been a regional champion and has qualified for state finals as an individual since she was a freshman. She was instrumental in her team qualifying for the state finals this past year. She really enjoys helping her teammates succeed and challenges them to improve.

Becca has aspirations to bowl on a college team. To better prepare, she has been participating in different tournaments around Michigan, like Junior Gold Qualifiers. In addition to bowling, Becca participates in many activities at her high school. She is on the board for the National Honor Society and Leo Club, a volunteer group. She has been on the varsity volleyball team since her sophomore year. Becca has been taking college courses since her junior year and has been a regional, state, and national qualifier for Business Professionals of America. She is very active in and outside of school.
