PreacherWoman for the Goddess:

Poems, Invocations,
Plays and Other Holy Writ

A spirit-filled word feast puzzling on life and death mysteries—rich with metaphor, surprise, earth-passion: a harvest of decades among women who build their own houses, bury their own dead, invent their own ceremonies.

By Bethroot Gwynn—poet, theaterwoman, temple keeper on women's land, and longtime editor for Mother Tongue Ink.

The Last Wild Witch

by Starhawk,

illustrated by Lindy Kehoe
*In the very heart of the last magic forest lived
the last wild Witch...*

In this story, the children of a perfect town find their joy and courage, and save the last wild Witch and the forest from destruction. A Silver Nautilus Award winner, this book is recognized internationally for helping readers imagine a world as it could be with abundant possibilities.
