Name	General Notes	Price
Cohiba Siglo II [Cuban]	Strength: Medium to Full Great starting point for exploring Cohiba. Earthy that eventually develops delicious notes of almond paste and a sweet finish.	£24
Montecristo Tubos [Cuban]	Strength: Medium to Full The draw is excellent, and it is very well constructed. Complex flavours, the last third is a bit stronger but still a very good smoke.	£21
Montecristo P. Edmundo [Cuban]	Strength: Medium to Full A heavy gauge short smoke with an intense and rewarding flavour.	£21
Romeo Y Julieta No.3 [Cuban]	Strength: Medium Spice, cedar and leather make this mild cigar a nice little treat. With a good burn and very good construction this is very enjoyable.	£15
Romeo Y Julieta No.2 [Cuban]	Strength: Medium Most popular cigar from Romeo Y Julieta. Very elegant and smoke, great with a mint tea. Try it!	£17
La Invicta Petit Corona [Honduras]	Strength: Medium Made using the finest tobaccos grown in Honduras. This cigar offers medium strength with a spicy yet hinted with a sweet taste.	£8
H.Upmann Corona "J" [Cuban]	Strength: Light to Medium Hints of coffee and some nutty flavours as well. Attractive, good draw, thick smoke with complex flavours for such a small cigar.	£10
Partagas Serie D No.4 [Cuban]	Strength: Full A controlled, rich and complex taste; a distinctive Robusto and a pure bred Havana.	£24
Cigar Cutter		£2
