

Muc-Off backs Justin Brayton in his final Supercross Season

POOLE 26.11.2021, FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE — Muc-Off is proud to announce continued support of Australian SX Champion and Supercross legend Justin Brayton in his final Supercross season.

Heading into his twentieth farewell Supercross season, Brayton will be returning to the Moto Concepts the team with whom he secured a 450SX main event victory at the famous Daytona in 2018. Brayton will be competing against the 450SX class on the Honda CRF 450R with the infamous #10 fronting up his number boards.

“I am pumped to be supporting Justin Brayton for 2022 as he races his final season in the AMA Supercross series. It has always been a huge ambition to be working at the pinnacle levels of motorsport, so to be working at this level with a rider as globally admired as Justin Brayton is simply awesome.” - Alex Trimnell, CEO at Muc-Off

Muc-Off will be supporting Brayton with a full range of their innovative bicycle and motorcycle products from their Clean, Protect and Lube systems. This includes the renowned pink Nano Tech Bike Cleaner; the flagship product that launched the brand back in 1994.

Brayton will also be running unique Muc-Off helmets throughout the 2022 season, designed by the in-house creative team at Muc-Off.

The Supercross season gets underway at the Angel Stadium Anaheim, California on the 8th of January 2022. This will be the first of a series of races in the orange county state.

“I’m really excited to continue my relationship with Muc-Off. It’s a brand I really believe in and one that fits my lifestyle on two wheels. From the motorcycle to the bicycle they have me covered.”

– Justin Brayton, Rider