OUTIN FUTURES

DESIGN Center.

We design reason and value.

We create radically effective value in our brand and product design that meet both customers' lifestyle and service requirements based on the brand's philosophy and strategy.

We design real innovation.

We do not create innovation with just fancy rhetoric or just eye-catching disruptive that only attracts customers for a short period of time. We create innovation to act as a catalyst for growth, to develop new customers value and to create new paradigm that aids in comfort, convenience, and efficiency in everyday life.

We design everything in beauty.

We focus on even the smallest details to bring out the beauty while fulfilling requirements of principal purpose and function of the brand. We help brand build customers love and trust by allowing consumers to touch and feel beautiful richness of every detail of design while its rational function meets new needs, or adds value to lifestyle.

N DEVELOPED BY NEOGENLAB

NEOGENLAB is a new concept, fourth generation laboratory in our faculty that has contributed great developments specially for OUTIN FUTURES's own private labels. NEOGENLAB has developed new skin rejuvenating formulas based on high dermatological biotechnologies and neo-nature with more focus on safer, more intensive function, multitasking function and to improve skin penetration capability.

Neo-nature is future-oriented concept term and the research field defined by naturalistic futurists based on the foundation that human lives are destined to always evolve and communicate in nature and with nature. This term is not only for principle metaphor of naturalism but is the futuristic mega-trend in modern lifestyle that values the ultimate coexistence between human lives and nature for the survival of mankind.

re:p. { real elemental practice

Practicing NEO-Nature Philosophy, our spirit grew more assertive and progressive and by creating Rawganic Vegan Cosmetic, RE:P, we were able to achieve power of initiative in real elemental practice to protect natural environment, to obtain consistent quality botanical-based active ingredients with eco-friendly technology and to develop skin-purifying, glow-boosting, Non-GMO formulas.

RE:P believes that nutrition is as essential for our skin as it is for our body. The brand nourishes complexion with the healthy ingredients that your body naturally craves. It uses a precisely balanced formulation of minerals, probiotics, and antioxidants “without” PEGs, TEA, DEA, propylene, glycol, synehetic color, synthetic fragrance, mineral oil, and silicones.
