

DARN GOOD YARN®

REDUCE, REUSE, REWRAP

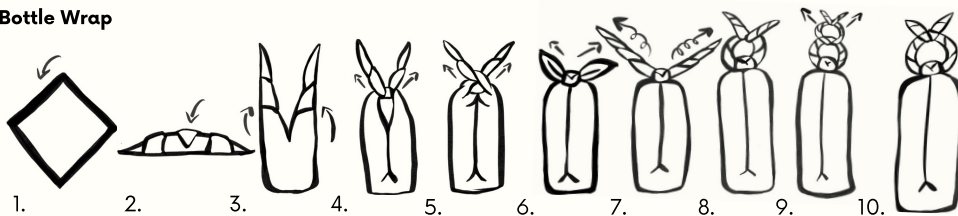

The many ways of tying furoshiki/A traditional Japanese wrapping-cloth

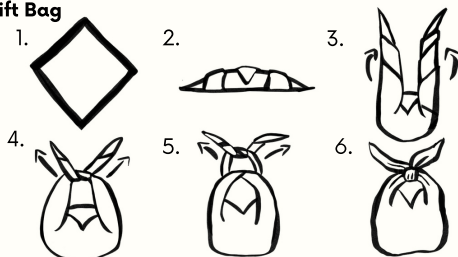

Headband

Bottle Wrap

Gift Bag

HISTORY OF FUROSHIKI

Furoshiki is the Japanese tradition in which square pieces of fabric are used as wrapping for gifts, as a way to carry or transport items, or as accents for the home and wardrobe. This practice has been gaining popularity around the world because of its simple elegance and environmental benefits.

DARN GOOD YARN®

REDUCE, REUSE, REWRAP

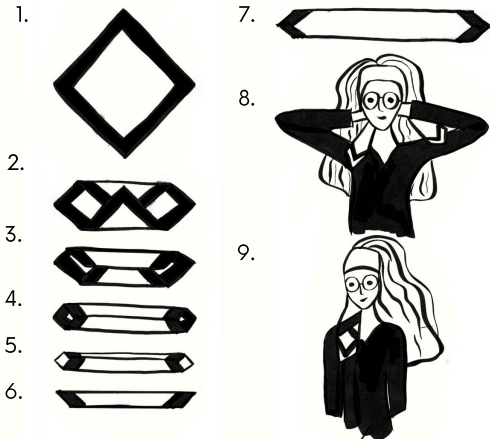

The many ways of tying furoshiki/A traditional Japanese wrapping-cloth

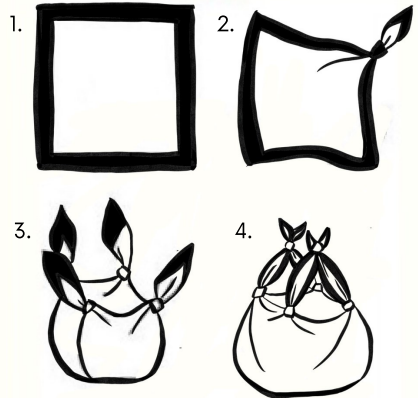

HISTORY OF DARN GOOD YARN

Since 2008, Darn Good Yarn has been dedicated to the values of craftsmanship and recycling. We use reclaimed textiles to create beautiful and unique products that you'll be able to love for years to come. So far, you've helped us save over two million pounds of material from ending up in landfills.

Headband

Gift Bag

Gift Wrapping

