

Studio Sconce

You'll find these chic sconces adorning the kitchenette wall at Phoenix based design build firm Juniper Studio. Designed by Jenny Komenda, the flat rectangular back plate, carefully contoured angles, and hand applied patina compose the same modern mix-up that she's known for. The Studio Sconce is perfect in spots in need of task lighting such as over counter tops, at the bedside, or in your reading nook. The arm swivels side to side with a 90 degree with an adjustable drop length head. Available in Antique Brass.
