

King and Queen

These watches are a pair, based on the classic playing card characters of the King and Queen of Hearts. The watches feature hands of cards to depict the minutes while the hours are shown in the royal breast.

The use of the playing cards symbolises the transitory nature of fortune - lucky streaks, while always welcome, are only as short lived as those runs of bad luck. The watches are a gentle reminder to keep your cards close to your chest, but to be bold and go all-in when fate has dealt you a winning hand!

Both watches were produced by Mr Jones Watches in their London workshop. All the components were printed, assembled and regulated individually by hand.
