

Job title : Sales Specialist

As a roll: Sales Specialist, you are at the core of a customer's experience in the store. Today's roll: Sales Specialists continue to be the force behind our success—and are pioneers of a bicycle retail revolution in establishing roll:'s reputation for extraordinary customer service and a store experience like no other. Are you ready to join the history-making, record-breaking, industry-shaking roll: team?

A candidate we'll love:

1. You have specialty retail experience preferably but it's not required.
2. You love to ride a bike and want to be able to share your joy.
3. You love to help customers and team members alike and can think quickly on your feet.
4. You have the sales and customer service skills that are the heart and soul of the roll: store experience.

A job that you'll love:

1. You understand that why people ride is as important to know as what people ride.
2. You translate "bike-speak" into "real people-speak".
3. You inspire a whole new generation of riders to get on their bikes.
4. You provide complete sales solutions for every customer.

Get paid to enrich people's lives:

A career at roll: is a chance to use your head, hands and heart. To use your knowledge and experience, to contribute meaningfully to the ride of peoples lives with your passion and expertise. What are you waiting for?

:get on your bike!