CUSTOM TREATS

FOR ANY OCCASION

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

A lot of people asked me how I ended up owning a bakery. They're usually stunned to learn that I'm also a lawyer. I made my first bagel in January 2009 and continued baking as a way to relieve stress during my last semester of law school and while I was studying for the bar exam. Six months after baking my first bagel, Baked by Yael was born.

Fast forward and now over a decade later, Baked by Yael has provided jobs to hundreds of workers, is a certified Nut-Free & Kosher Bakery, has a storefront across from the National Zoo, and we ship our treats nationwide.

My team and I are excited to provide you with tasty treat designs that will fit your party or event perfectly. We can't wait to get started!

Our signature cakepops make the perfect dessert for any occasion. They're homemade cake hand-blended with frosting and dipped in a candy coating, our cakepops are moist, sweet, and positively delicious. They're our most versatile product - great for receptions, parties, showers, office functions, and everything in between!

Tell us your party's color scheme and we'll match it. We can even display your signature cakepops in a variety of ways.

Our signature cakepops can be individually wrapped to make the perfect party favor.
