The curtain opens on a solid, lovingly crafted meatless entrée within flakey layers —Did you guess? Spanakopita. Lively renditions of chicken, turkey, and beef accompany a shrimp dish and Salmon Cake on the menu's first page. Summer vegetables make an appearance in a frittata of firmer texture, provided as two cupcake-sized portions, while black beans and rice are not overlooked. A salad singing with Miso-Tahini Dressing, earthy soups, and a medley of vegetable and side dishes round out the performance.

And guess what? We've got a new Sweet Treat — one that is not a cake, cookie, or brownie! And that's all I'm saying.
