STORY

Our entry into the Beer Deluxe Hop Quest 2019 beer challenge saw many entries from some of Australia's best breweries; IIPAs, NEIPAs, IPAs, Milkshake IPAs etc. Our take on it was to do something sour, as that is an area of brewing we know extremely well. The result was a Triple Dry Hopped (kettle) Sour(ed) New England IPA.

Why triple dry hopping? It allows us to achieve a more permanent haze, as well as providing that lush, juicy, aroma and flavour.

Why sour? Our kettle sour process provides a distinct citrus note, which we felt would complement the juicy character of this beer.

Our selection of hops—Wakatu, Galaxy, Enigma and Taiheke—were also chosen to provide a wonderful juicy character.

This beer won the champion beer of Hop Quest 2019.

TASTING NOTES

Juicy, hazy, almost like fruit juice! The acid plays a great role in enhancing the juice character.

FOOD PAIRING

Special K—some days are just beer for breakfast kinda days. Or! Cereal for dinner kinda days.

CELLARING POTENTIAL

Drink fresh! We've given this beer a 3 month best before.
