SOLTERRA TEAK TABLE

#11710-xxx

The Solterra Teak Treatment Table is specifically designed for use outside the treatment room. It can withstand harsh conditions common to ocean-side resorts. Constructed from materials that are traditionally used for shipbuilding, such as solid teak wood, stainless steel and HDPE, the Solterra is ready to sail in any environment. A top cushion that is easily removable prolongs its life and makes keeping it clean a breeze. With all the comforts and features of a standard massage table, the Solterra Teak Table provides you with versatility when planning for unique treatment locations.
