

The diagram shows three concentric circles. The outermost circle is red and is the largest. The middle circle is black and is smaller than the red one. The innermost circle is green and is the smallest. The text is centered within the green circle.

Place your image
inside the small circle.

Extend the background color or texture all the way to the LARGE circle.

The area between both circles forms the side of the button.