Dear Buyer,

I'm a frequent customer in your store but I order from Addictive Wellness online because I haven't been able to find anyone who carries them locally. Their Raw Chocolates and Elixir Blends are sugar-free, made with the highest quality adaptogens, and great for people who are paleo, keto, or vegan. Nobody else makes products that check all these boxes and taste so good! I'd really appreciate if you could carry them here so that I could buy them locally.

You can contact them at orders@addictivewellness.com or 424-235-8895.

Thanks so much,
