PRECIOUSLY PARIS Pink Splash clutch, $1,820.

SPRWMN capri pants in leather, $725.

MAKING A SPLASH

With a nod to iconic California creatives such as Slim Aarons, Richard Neutra and of course Marilyn Monroe, Preciously Paris' new Swim with Marilyn collection of clutches is a charming and whimsical take on Old Hollywood inspired by Creative Director Carole Tessier's travels stateside. Featuring palm tree-clad scenes, heart-shaped piscines and Marilyn poolside, each limited-edition, embroidered piece comes in a handmade box. Just One Eye, 7000 Romaine St., L.A., 323-969-9129; justoneeye.com; preciouslyparis.com.

LOS ANGELES

Hero Worship

Designer and single mother of two Ambre Dahan knows the duty of the working mom well, so when the former Joe's Jeans design director started her own line of athletic, effortlessly chic leather and suede staples, SPRWMN seemed like the perfect moniker. Classic silhouettes—think jumpsuits, bandeaus and wear-everywhere high-waisted leggings—are made in L.A. from prized French lamb leather that holds its shape and rebounds like no other. Super indeed. sprwmn.com.

FRANKIE wool coat, $735, wool chemise, $395, ribbed pullover, $325, and leather skirt, $760, all from the Fall/Winter 2016 collection.

DOWNTOWN LOS ANGELES

Frankly Speaking

Downtown Los Angeles' Arts District is not only the inspiration behind new ready-to-wear brand Frankie, but also home to its soon-to-debut brick-and-mortar flagship. Founder Kevin J. Chen (also CEO and founder of MEK denim) tapped a team of designers to translate the creative spirit of the neighborhood into a wearable collection spanning premium denim, leather outerwear and knitted pieces. Up next: shoes, handbags and small leather goods. 1129 E. 5th St., L.A., 213-235-1639; frankie-us.com.

COACH Badlands with Western rivets in Bordeaux, $995.

STYLE Authority

Classic American brand Coach is celebrating its 75th anniversary with a range of stylish happenings under the leadership of Creative Director Stuart Vevers. Its most iconic pieces—the Saddle Bag, the Dinky, the Ranger and the Duffle—are getting a modern refresh in buttery glove-tanned leather. Come October, Rizzoli will publish Coach: A History of New York Cool, a commemorative book exploring the brand's impact through the decades. That same month, the Coach Craftmanship Bar launches in its L.A. flagship (S.F.'s opened earlier this year), with special leather services and exclusive vintage bags restored to their original glory. 327 N. Rodeo Dr., 310-247-1309; coach.com.
