Nobu Sofa

This product is made to order in Italy.

A distinctive feature of the Sofa NOBU are its independent, freely movable back cushions, equipped with an internal metal structure for stability. This gives the sofa the ultimate in flexibility, making it perfect for all situations, including using it as a daybed. Deep and low seating are chic and very modern. Modular pieces may be used to form a sectional. This item is available in a selection of curated fabrics, or COM/COL (Customer's Own Material/Leather).
