The Sacramento Street boutique opened in June.

SAN FRANCISCO HOME DEPOT

Beyond a handpicked assortment of refurbished antiques alongside textiles from China Seas and Castel, the real draw at clean, cheerful Anyon Atelier has been the art: Bay Area native Lindsay Brier and her associate, Sarah Frehofer, both studied art history at Dartmouth and love curating collections for clients. French photographer César Ancelle Hansen's prints of surf culture in Biarritz, sold in editions of three, have been a hit. 3452 Sacramento St., S.F., 415-814-3849; anyondesign.com.
