FIESTA

As if Texans needed another excuse to love their margaritas, might we introduce you to Tequila Social—Harwood Hospitality's newly-opened eatery. Perched prominently on the Katy Trail toward Reverchon Park, this buzzy spot features myriad Tex-Mex favorites, including queso fundido, carne asada and empanadas as well as a punchy list of margaritas to imbibe. 3100 McKinnon St., tequilasocialdal.com

DESIGN DARLING

San-Fransisco-based design firm Anyon Atelier recently made its debut in the Knox-Henderson neighborhood. A purveyor of unique fine art and home furnishings, founder Lindsay Anyon Brier offers a carefully curated selection in her jewel box of a space. Are you on the hunt for your next treasure? We suggest you head this way. 5238 Milan St., anyondesign.com

SALUTE!

The happiest of hours can be found at Postino WineCafé—a newly opened all-day wine cafe and restaurant. Taking residence in Prestonwood Place in Addison, the 4,308-square-foot space features a sumptuous selection of chef-driven charcuterie boards and a seasonally curated wine and beer program. We can all cheers to that... 5280 Belt Line Road, anyondesign.com

HOUSE OF GUCCI

Ciao, Bella! Hot off the heels of opening its new storefront in NorthPark Center, the Italian fashion house has ushered in all the latest looks of leather goods, apparel and accessories just in time for the bustling fall season. Peruse the 12,000 square-foot space and marvel over the chic offerings for men, women and children. Fun fact: There is a Gucci Kids Collection boutique within the space, so the littles can also be en pointe. 8687 North Central Expwy., gucci.com

Balmain recently opened its doors to the highly-anticipated space in Highland Park Village.
