

Mother's Day is just a short time away, so we thought it would be fun to ask your kids some questions about their Mum and have some #iso time together going through all their answers. This will give you a good chance to get off screens for a while too. You might find your kids answers might surprise you.

So if you're feeling up for it, here are 10 questions to ask your kids on Mother's Day.

1. What is something your Mum always says to you?

---

2. What is your Mum's favourite thing to do?

---

3. What is your Mum really good at?

---

4. What is your Mum not very good at?

---

5. What is your Mum's favourite food?

---

6. What makes you proud of your Mum?

---

7. If your Mum was a cartoon character, who would she be?

---

8. How are you and your Mum the same?

---

9. How are you and your Mum different?

---

10. How do you know your Mum loves you?

---