Mouse and Swiss Cheese
I used 5/8” thick aspen for the cheese and 3/4” thick western red cedar for the mouse.

I used a wood burner to add the whisker spots and the fingers.

About the red and yellow lines: The dark blade is very visible against the red line which makes it much easier to cut the separate pieces more accurately. The yellow lines are outside parts, on these areas you can relax a little as you are sawing.