Chemotherapy Hair Loss Clinical Study

Pre-Chemo Medical Questionnaire

There are several parameters that we must look at for the participants of this study. If you are not selected for the pre-chemo study you may still be a candidate for the post chemo treatment study. Rest assured we will not identify you publicly by first and last name in any publication. You will be identified by ID number. We will also be praying for your rapid recovery from this treatment and your cancer. Thank you for your willingness to participate.
