Mobile device sled for Ingenico's iSMP4 Companion

Overview:

- Mobile: take the Ingenico iSMP4 Companion anywhere and use it your way.
- Universal: use attached and paired to a tablet or other device
- Easy to use: simple, open-face design provides access to all features of the iSMP4 Companion without removing the device from the sled.
- Durable: Sled is made from a sturdy and damage-resistant material, but is still slightly flexible.
- Lightweight: sled weighs only 1.2 ounces. Total weight with the iSMP4 Companion is less than 8 ounces.
- Flexibility: multiple attachment options exist for the sled. Find the one best for your particular need.
- Future Proof: need to move the holster to another location? The sled is designed to be movable with very little effort.
- Accessorize: add the Handholder to a tablet for ease of carrying.

Handeholder Products, an innovative designer of USA-made tablet gear, has developed a multi-use mobile payment point-of-sale (POS) holder for the Ingenico iSMP4 Companion. Presenting the Mozee™ Sled. It's mobile. It's versatile. It's easy. And it's made to be carried in a variety of ways. From retail, to hospitality, to banking and beyond, enjoy the freedom to take the iSMP4 Companion anywhere needed to get the job done.

Versatile Mounting Options:

- Connect the sled using the two interlocking dual lock rings (Rings included)
- Use the molded screw holes to attach it securely to another hard surface
- Integrate with the Linkyt SideKick attachment to attach seamlessly to the OtterBox uniVERSE case system for tablets and phones (SideKick sold separately)
