

International Prints

September 15 - October 8, 2016

Opening reception:

Saturday, September 17 from 7:00 - 9:00pm

Winchester Galleries proudly presents its annual exhibition of international prints from September 15 through October 8, 2016. A special reception will be held on Saturday, September 17th to officially open the exhibition.

Featuring work that has been acquired by the gallery throughout the course of this last year, this exhibition of fine-art international prints is always keenly anticipated. Those who have specific interest are invited to contact the gallery for advance images and information.

Some of the artists whose work will be on exhibit are Chagall, Degas, Ernst, Hirst, Lichtenstein, Matisse, Miro, Motherwell, Picasso, Renoir, Toulouse-Lautrec, Vasarely and Warhol.

Of particular note are an iconic 1968 Andy Warhol soup can serigraph ("Chicken Noodle"); a 1989 screenprint from Roy Lichtenstein ("Art"); and a 2012 woodcut by Damien Hirst ("Fenbufen").
