

Urban Coalition for Ukraine Strategies and Proposals

This publication reflects the work of the first year of Rozkvit – Urban Coalition for Ukraine. The members are professionals from Ukraine and elsewhere who have come together to rethink Ukraine’s future. In six chapters covering topics ranging from urbanism to housing and from identity to circular building and governance, the many different aspects of rebuilding and reconstruction are addressed in the form of longer essays, conversations, and project descriptions. All texts and projects are written or executed by Rozkvit members. Sometimes the authors express their personal views and involvement, creating a rich amalgam of different voices while adhering to a common set of values that members of Rozkvit share and cherish. Rozkvit’s work follows five principles:

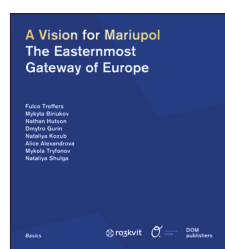

- Civil society comes first
- Rozkvit’s work is ethically sound
- Consideration of prudent use of sources and resources
- Education is crucial
- Rozkvit’s work is network-based
